

The Queensland Migrant WorkWise Program, run by the Queensland Council of Unions, is looking for a passionate Outreach Officer to help temporary visa holders working in Queensland understand their rights at work and where to get help if things go wrong.

✓ You'll be:

- Talking to temporary visa holders and their employers about workplace rights
- Running information sessions
- Helping workers at risk of exploitation connect to support services
- Working with unions, community groups, and community leaders to protect workers

We're looking for someone who:

- Has strong connections in the migrant communities
- Enjoys helping people and standing up for fairness
- Is confident speaking to groups (training provided!)

📌 Work is based in Cairns or Rockhampton but travel throughout Queensland may be involved.

📅 Apply before 30 September 2025.

Interested? Send your CV and a short note about your experience to: Renee Kempin at reneek@qcu.asn.au.
